MOSAIC DEDICATION IN MEMORY JOHN H. SCHRODER, JR.

Sunday, July 30, 2006 at the 9:30 a.m. Mass a mosaic titled, Archdiocese of New Orleans, Coat of Arms will be dedicated in memory of John H. Schroder, Jr. by his wife Susan, and the Schroder Family. The mosaic which is approximately 25" in diameter was produced by the Studio del Mosaico della Fabbrica di San Pietro in Vaticano. The mosaic craftsman was Alessandro Giusti who executed the design with glassy enamels, fixed with oily stucco onto an iron support tray. The Vatican Mosaic Studio, under the direction of the Fabrique of St. Peter, carries out a double task: the conservation of the mosaics inside the Basilica and production of mosaic works that are sold to the public. St. Patrick's Church is truly enriched with this beautiful mosaic thanks to the generosity of the Schroder Family.

SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

CHILDREN HAVE THE RIGHT TO A HOME LIKE THAT OF NAZARETH

The following is the last part of an address delivered by Benedict XVI on the Saturday night, during the Vigil of the Fifth World Meeting of Families in Valencia, Spain.

... And what is more: "Parents, in virtue of their participation in the fatherhood of God, have the first responsibility for the education of their children and they are the first heralds of the faith for them. They have the duty to love and respect their children as persons and as children of God ... in particular, they have the mission of educating their children in the Christian faith" (ibid, 460).

The language of faith is learned in homes where this faith grows and is strengthened through prayer and Christian practice. In the reading from Deuteronomy we have heard the prayer constantly repeated by the Chosen People, the "Shema Israel," which Jesus himself would have heard and recited in his home in Nazareth

He himself would refer to it during his public life, as we see in the Gospel of Mark (12:29). This is the faith of the Church, which is born of God's love which comes through your families. To live the fullness of this faith, in all its wondrous newness, is a great gift. All the same, at those times when God's face seems to be hidden, believing can be difficult and takes great effort.

This meeting provides a new impetus for proclaiming the Gospel of the family, reaffirming the strength and identity of the family founded upon marriage and open to the generous gift of life, where children are accompanied in their bodily and spiritual growth.

This is the best way to counter a widespread hedonism which reduces human relations to banality and empties them of their authentic value and beauty. To promote the values of marriage does not stand in the way of fully experiencing the happiness that man and women encounter in their mutual love.

Christian faith and ethics are not meant to stifle love, but to make it healthier, stronger and more truly free. Human love needs to be purified and to mature if it is to be fully human and the principle of a true and lasting joy (cf. Address at Saint John Lateran, June 5, 2006)

And so I invite government leaders and legislators to reflect on the evident benefits which homes in peace and harmony assure to individuals and the family, the neuralgic center of society, as the Holy See has stated in the Charter of the Rights of the Family.

The purpose of laws is the integral good of man, in response to his needs and aspirations. This good is a significant help to society, of which it cannot be deprived, and for peoples a safeguard and a purification.

The family is also a school which enables men and women to grow to the full measure of their humanity. The experience of being loved by their parents helps children to become aware of their dignity as children

Children need to be brought up in the faith, to be loved and protected. Along with their basic right to be born and to be raised in the faith, children also have the right to a home which takes as its model the home of Nazareth, and to be shielded from all dangers and threats.

I would now like to say a word to grandparents, who are so important for every family. They can be -- and so often are -- the guarantors of the affection and tenderness which every human being needs to give and receive. They offer little ones the perspective of time, they are memory and richness of families. In no way should they ever be excluded from the family circle. They are a treasure which the younger generation should not be denied, especially when they bear witness to their faith at the approach of death.

BENEDICT XVI

REMEMBER, RECLAIM AND RENEW

The citizens of our region will mark a great milestone on Tuesday, August 29, 2006, the first anniversary of the destruction wrought by Hurricane Katrina... An interfaith service will be held at seven o'clock in the evening at St. Louis Cathedral. It is hoped that clergy and congregations representing Orleans, Jefferson, and other affected civil parishes will join together in solidarity.

The theme of the service will be REMEMBER, RECLAIM, AND RENEW. We will remember those who lost their lives to the storm's fury and its aftermath, as well as those who lost everything but their lives. We will ask divine assistance as we reclaim our lives, our families, and our property. Our mission to renew not only our own lives but also this city and region in which we live will be proclaimed.

Let us pray together that this service will strengthen us in joy and purpose as we embrace the many tasks that are before us...

Most Reverend Alfred C. Hughes
Archbishop of New Orleans

PRESERVATION OF THE CHURCH'S HERITAGE OF SACRED MUSIC

Pope Benedict XVI has called for preservation of the Church's heritage of sacred music. Genuine renewal in Catholic music "cannot be achieved except by following the great traditions of the past, of Gregorian chants and sacred polyphony," said the Holy Father... This musical tradition, he said, is "a priceless spiritual, artistic, and cultural heritage."

PRAYER TO OUR LADY OF PROMPT SUCCOR

Our Father in heaven, through the powerful intercession of Our Lady of Prompt Succor, spare us from all harm during this hurricane season, and protect us and our homes from all disasters of nature.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor, hasten to help us. Amen.
